'Many consider her to be the best living writer in this language . . . In her hands, words are fluid, radiant, humming' Evening Standard

'She is a master of her material, a writer in whom great talent abides' Muriel Spark, Vanity Fair

This is the story of Jeanette, adopted and brought up by her mother as one of God's elect. Zealous and passionate, she seems destined for life as a missionary, but then she falls for one of her converts. At sixteen, Jeanette decides to leave the church, her home and her family, for the young woman she loves. Innovative, punchy and tender, Oranges Are Not The Only Fruit is a few days' ride into the bizarre outposts of religious excess and human obsession.

'Her novels stand out as performances of real originality and extraordinary promise' John Bayley
